

Jeana diNatale
Winchester, MA

Jeana is a high school junior and has been a Girl Scout since Daisy level. She has completed many Girl Scout Journeys and is working on her Gold Award. Her project involves developing and implementing a water safety education program that is a five-day camp designed for children ages five through twelve. An avid swimmer who competes on her high school swim team, Jeana is a surf-certified lifeguard and a beachfront and pool swim instructor. She is a member of her school's public speaking club, healthcare occupations club, and Connect and Commit community service program. Jeana is involved with several STEM initiatives, one of which includes serving as project manager for her team's Real World Design Challenge. Jeana is interested in the sciences and pursuing a career in STEM with the goal of helping others.
