

BOARD NOMINATING AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

Jennifer LaFrance
Medfield, MA

Jen LaFrance began her career as a Financial Planner in 2000. Jen spent many years with a premier full service financial planning firm where she developed a reputation as a leading senior advisor before joining E3 Wealth Management in 2015. She works with individuals, families and business owners to establish and update a financial plan through all stages. She is committed to solving problems and helping her clients feel secure in their decisions. She provides them with a holistic approach which includes wealth management, estate conservation, protection planning and business succession. Jen is active with the University of Massachusetts Alumni Association and is a member of Tomorrow's Women Today, an organization that was founded to bring women together who have been identified as leaders in both the public and private sectors. Jen lives in Medfield with her husband Ted and their three daughters, Natalie, Grace & Olivia. She enjoys running road races, cooking and spending time with family and friends.
