

Lily M.
Girl Scout Ambassador

Lily is a high school junior and has been a Girl Scout since Daisy level. She earned her Bronze Award for helping stray pets in need and collected items for a local shelter's yard sale. She earned her Silver Award with a project that addressed the environmental impact of plastic bags. Lily initiated a "Bring Your Own Bag Month" in her town to promote sustainable actions. She earned her Gold Award by bringing awareness to the lack of education on essential life skills in schools, and taught a series of workshops revolving around "adulting" at the Epiphany School in Dorchester. At school, she is a New Student Ambassador, a member of National Honor Society, and plays on the varsity golf team. She works at a local bakery, volunteers at her church, and is part of the National Charity League. Lily hopes to pursue a career in nursing and global health.
