

BOARD NOMINATING AND DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE

Louise Mallette
Duxbury, MA

Louise is principal of the Telic Group and has been a business partner, coach, and consultant for more than 25 years working with organizations in healthcare, not-for-profit, education, government, technology, manufacturing, financial services, and bioscience. Known for her ability to think and facilitate creatively, Louise helps individuals, leaders, and organizations increase their effectiveness and satisfaction in the workplace through assessment, planning, facilitation, training, and coaching by changing the individual development conversations people have with themselves and the collective development conversations they have with each other. Previously, she held human resource management positions at Pioneer Investment Management, Hewlett Packard Company, Chase Manhattan Bank, 3Com Corporation, Honeywell Information Systems and General Electric Company. She has served on a number of boards including the Skidmore College Alumni Board, where she recently completed her second term. She is a member of the Boston Facilitators' Roundtable, the Human Resources Leadership Forum, the International Coaching Federation, and GSEMA's Board Nominating and Development Committee. Louise loved being a Girl Scout and attended Girl Scout camp for many years. She has a bachelor's degree in government and English from Skidmore and is a certified coach from the Hudson Institute of Coaching.

Building girls of
courage, confidence,
and character,
who make the world
a better place.