

Pat Chadwick
Wellesley, MA

Pat retired from Bloomingdales after a 40-year career in the retail industry. As Senior Vice President, she ran the global lease portfolio for the company. Her responsibilities were to seek and discover business opportunities throughout the global marketplace. In addition, she managed contractual negotiation, real estate allocation, marketing strategy, and profitability optimization. In her previous role, Pat was the SVP/Regional for the northeast, developing high performing leadership and selling teams, focused on sales and profit growth for the largest region in the company. Pat is Vice Chair for Encore Boston Network, whose mission is to strengthen communities by engaging the talents of adults 50+, a growing resource for social good. She has spearheaded the Generation to Generation Campaign in the Boston area working to help youth-serving organizations maximize the talent of 50+ so that young people can thrive. Pat is also a Managing Director at Golden Seeds, the early stage investment firm with a focus on women leaders creating lasting impact. Pat is a graduate of the College of the Holy Cross and was a 2016 Fellow at the Advanced Leadership Initiative at Harvard University.

