

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Roc O'Connell
Reading, MA

Roc retired in 1998 after 25 years with the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston and more than 30 years in the financial services industry. Since 1999 he has owned and operated his own construction company, Roc 'n' Playsets, Inc., designing and building backyard playsets, treehouses and a variety of other construction projects. Roc also serves on the boards of a number of civic and nonprofit organizations, including Reading Scholarship Foundation, Reading Council for Girls, St. Athanasius Church and Gunstock Acres Common Property Trust (New Hampshire homeowners association). Roc has been a Girl Scout for more than 30 years, serving on the Board of Directors since 2008, and on a variety of committees. Currently, Roc serves as GSEMA's treasurer and is a member of the Finance Committee and Investment Committee, as well as co-chair of the Long Range Property Planning Advisory Committee.
