

Sonia Kwon
Andover, MA

Sonia serves as Legislative Director for State Senator Diana DiZoglio, First Essex District, advising the Senator on legislative issues and assisting in the development of policy positions and legislative initiatives. Prior to her position at the Massachusetts Senate, Sonia was a partner at a small Boston law firm. She draws on over 10 years' experience as a tax and estate planning attorney to perform statutory analysis and draft legislation. As a member of Girl Scouts of Eastern Massachusetts' Board of Directors, Sonia lends her professional experience to the council's Bylaws Review Task Force serving as chair, participates as a member of the Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Advisory Group, and recently completed her term on the Executive Committee. She volunteers at the annual MathMovesU® program and remains dedicated to the council's STEM initiatives. Within her community, Sonia is an active volunteer with Merrimack Valley Habitat for Humanity and a substitute teacher for Methuen Public Schools. Sonia earned her bachelor's degree from University of Pennsylvania and her law degree from Boston College Law School.
