

Tricia Tilford
Weston, MA

Tricia is a certified public accountant who has experience working in public accounting for Arthur Andersen and private accounting for Moody's Investors Service. At Moody's, she was the director of Financial Reporting and Analysis. Her responsibilities included the preparation of Moody's annual, quarterly, and periodic reporting with the United States Department of Labor and the Securities and Exchange Commission. She has served on the boards of the World Foundation for Girl Guides and Girl Scouts, Inc. and Family Service of Greater Boston. She is GSEMA's Board Chair and President.

Previously, she served on the council's Audit Committee, Board Nominating and Development Committee, CEO Search Committee, and Fund Development Committee, and as a museum docent. She has been a member of the Board of Directors since 2013 and a Girl Scout for 40 years. Tricia has been involved internationally with Girl Scouting by serving on the WAGGGS Finance Committee and nationally as a member of the GSUSA Charter Refinement Team and as a GSUSA National Volunteer Partner - Finance. She has attended six WAGGGS World Conferences and seven GSUSA National Conventions. Honors include the Girl Scout Thanks Badge II and Moody's Corporation Global Volunteer Award. Tricia received a B.B.A. from the University of Notre Dame and is a Gold Award Girl Scout.

Building girls of
courage, confidence,
and character,
who make the world
a better place.