

Lacey Cumming Boston, MA

Lacey is a talent acquisition manager at athenahealth, leading a team that recruits top talent for the sales, marketing, and corporate divisions. She is passionate about sharing athenahealth's vision while providing the best candidate experience. Before joining athenahealth in 2015, she worked on the special events team at Boston Children's Hospital Trust, the philanthropic resource for Boston Children's Hospital. From 2016 to 2019 she served as a committee member for the Kidding Around event, where she focused on securing attendees and fundraising for various marathons. Prior to that, she served as a member of the Playworks New England Leadership Council. In college, Lacey was a two-year captain of the Varsity Field Hockey team, secretary of the Student Athletic Advisory Committee, an Admission Fellow, and a committee member for the Center for Women in Business. She was inducted into the Falcon Society, which is the highest honor awarded to students who excel in academics and extracurriculars. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Marketing and an MBA from Bentley University.
