Fun and Easy Thank You Awards

These awards can be shared between volunteers at service unit meetings or in troop meetings to recognize adults who are giving a little extra to enhance the Girl Scout experience in their community. Thank a parent for taking camping or cookie training. Thank your fellow troop volunteers for pitching in to create a successful service unit event, or your registrar for getting all the town paperwork in ahead of schedule. It can be fun, easy and inexpensive to appreciate the volunteers who help make Girl Scouts possible in your community! Use one of the suggested gifts below and attach a card telling the recipient why they are getting the award.

A little Bee – Attach a card saying: Thanks for “beeing” you!

A Needle – Thanks for being “sew” nice!

A toy Top – for being “tops”

Aspirin – for resolving a “headachy” situation

Baby’s Pacifier – for being a peace maker

White Out – for clearing up “mistakes”

A Fan – for cooling off a “hot” situation

Cracker Jacks – for doing a “cracker-jack” job

A Battery – for “charging” up the team or community

Tacks – for being “tactful”

Magnet – for “attracting” new volunteers or girls

Rubber Band – for really “stretching”

Pencil Lead – for getting the “lead” out!

Elmer's Glue Award – for keeping things together

Paper Clip – for “clipping” along and getting things done

An Eraser – for clearing up mistakes

A Ruler – for “Measuring” up

Staples – for being a “staple” in the community

Note Paper – for always being “write” there when you are needed

Alka-Seltzer – for resolving an “upsetting” situation

Piece of Blue Ribbon – for doing a “blue-ribbon” job

Matches – There’s no “match” for you or for “lighting” up the community

Cleanser (Comet, etc.) – for taking care of the “dirty” work

Safety Pin – For keeping it all “together”

Nail – for really “nailing” things down

Matches - Thanks for igniting our membership by getting your registration forms in early!

A stick of Extra Gum - for going the Extra mile

A Blow Pop - for helping us blow our goals out of the water
